WILLIAM REED HUNTINGTON, PRIEST, 1909: MASS

The First Lesson. The Reader begins

A Reading from the

Letter of Paul to the Ephesians

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. He destined us in love to be his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace which he lavished upon us. For he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fulness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

- 1    Oh, how good and pleasant it is, *
      when brethren live together in unity!
- 2    It is like fine oil upon the head *
      that runs down upon the beard,
- 3    Upon the beard of Aaron, *
      and runs down upon the collar of his robe.
- 4    It is like the dew of Hermon *
      that falls upon the hills of Zion.
- 5    For there the LORD has ordained the blessing: *
      life for evermore.

The Holy Gospel

The Minister says      The Lord be with you.
People                       And also with you.
Minister                   ✕ The Holy Gospel of our Lord
                              Jesus Christ according to John.
People                       Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At the supper before the passover, Jesus prayed for his disciples: “I do not pray for these only, but also for those who believe in me through their word, that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. The glory which thou hast given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and thou in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that thou hast sent me and hast loved them even as thou hast loved me. Father, I desire that they also, whom thou hast given me, may be with me where I am, to behold my glory which thou hast given me in thy love for me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world has not known thee, but I have known thee; and these know that thou hast sent me. I made known to them thy name, and I will make it known, that the love with which thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

The Minister says            The Gospel of the Lord.
